PREFACE

This is the first of what we hope will be a Series of Contributions to Canadian Bibliography issued by the Reference Department of the Public Library of Toronto. The idea which actuates us in this work arises from the situation which faces one who wishes to know not only what was published in early times in Canada, but where these publications may be consulted. It is useful to ourselves to have a classified list of these books and pamphlets; we think that it may be of interest and value to other libraries, and to the increasingly large number of people in Canada who are becoming interested in her early history.

This list is compiled by Miss Frances Staton, the head of the Reference Department. The date of ending the list is purely arbitrary, having no connection with book production, but marking an historical event which was influential in shaping the destinies of our country.

GEORGE H. LOCKE,
Chief Librarian.
